

January 16, 2012
6th Grade Newsletter

Parents: Tonight, the Home and School Meeting will be in the Elementary Campus Gym at 6:30 pm. The Elementary Campus children will perform, so please try to attend to support the children. If a parent/grandparent/guardian attends, the child earns the privilege of wearing jeans on Thursday, January 19.

Samantha Ruiz is in charge of the snacks for this week, and Lucas Isom is in charge of the bake sale.

Religion: Chapter 8: An Enslaved People
Venture: Jesus calls us to follow him in Sunday's gospel.

Spelling: Lesson 17 – Words With Apostrophes and Hyphens – test Friday

Math: Students will continue to focus on equations and inequalities.

Science: Chapter 1 – Heat and Matter

S. S. : Chapter 5: Ancient India and Persia

Language Arts: The students are reading “Island of the Blue Dolphins” by Scott O'dell. They will summarize chapters in the story, make inferences and draw conclusions, and answer comprehension questions. In English, the students will begin writing a research paper about their science fair project.

Thank You and God Bless,
Mr. Hernandez